

Unlike some Italian clubs, you can get out of ours anytime you want. In fact the only membership we offer is free. And you don't have to join or be an Italian to come to our events. So don't be shy.

Because we're all family, here.

Testimonials

"Amici d'Italia is all about Italian culture, language, and food." Attending the events, I am able to see different aspects of Italian-American life. "I've gone to simple wine and food tasting, saw visiting exhibits of Italian artists at the High, had a summer evening picnic while watching an Italian Film, went to a puppet show about Da Vinci, and spent a night at the opera."

Home

Amici d'Italia started in 1997, a non-profit organization social club dedicated to fostering Italian culture and heritage in the Atlanta community.

We host several events per year covering all different aspects of Italian culture. Some of our past events have included pizza, pasta, espresso, dessert, sampling Italian food, wine tasting, viewing Italian movies, visits to local shops and art galleries featuring Italian wares and artists. One of our most memorable events was to a vintage Vespa Shop, where we were treated to a lecture on the history of Vespa while we feasted on gelato from a local gelateria.

Our guest speakers included a CNN coorespondent and Leo Mazzone, former Braves pitching coach.

Announcing a social club that actually promotes garlic breath

Ahhh. The sweet smell of baked rigatoni. Sundried tomato crostini. And tangy, deep red chianti. Celebrate Italia with us and events like these.

Testimonials

"I'm only 25% Italian but I feel 100% Italian at Amici d'Italia events. Amici d'italia to me is a warm gathering of friends to celebrate Italian traditions and lifestyles."

Holly

"It's a home away from home, a place for us to rediscover our Italian heritage and to embrace our passions for delicious food, good wine, engaging conversation life."
